

The Rosary Teams

International Edition

Number 9

May 13, 2023

Dear members of the Rosary Teams,
dear friends,

After six years in office, Chantal is coming to the end of her mission. We warmly thank her, as well as her husband Michel, for all the work accomplished. She passes the baton to Christine who embarks on the great adventure of the international Rosary Teams. The new coordination is counting on your prayers!

The new international Coordination
Lerma (Spain) – May 2023

Christine Pettinari, International Coordinator - Fr. Louis-Marie Arifo-Durand, International Chaplain

Latest news

Following the presentation of Fr. Louis-Marie at the General Chapter of Tultenango in Mexico in July 2022, the international coordination was invited to El Salvador and Mexico at the end of November to found new Teams. In March 2023, Fr. Louis-Marie traveled to Asia to present the Movement in Vietnam, finalize the launch of the Teams in Chinese in Taiwan and finally encourage the three young Teams in South Korea.

Agenda

Two trips are planned for the international coordination. The first one, in Africa: the international chaplain will visit the Democratic Republic of Congo, Congo and Angola in July. The second will lead the international coordination to Belgium, in September. The Teams experience a new dynamism there. It is absolutely necessary to encourage them! In the meantime, a colossal translation job awaits us: official documents must be prepared in Vietnamese,

Our Lady of Guadalupe shrine – Mexico City – December 2022

Without you, we can't do anything.

The photograph of the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico reminds us of the need to entrust ourselves to the intercession of the Virgin Mary and, like her, to trust in the Spirit. We need your support, both spiritual and material. As we write these lines, we are leaving a monastery in Spain, that of Lerma. We entrusted the Teams to the prayer of the Dominican nuns. We are counting on them... and on you! Thanks for your help.
